CPH Group CFO to step down

Manfred Häner to relinquish his position after four years

Manfred Häner is to step down as Chief Financial Officer of CPH Chemie + Papier Holding AG, the holding company of the CPH Group. Häner joined the company as Group CFO on 1 March 2012 and has since been in overall charge of the Group's finances, real estate, IT and investor relations. He has also served on Group Executive Management in this capacity.

In his almost four years with CPH, Manfred Häner has made an invaluable contribution to the Group's further development. He departs by amicable agreement, in view of differences of opinion on the Group's further business development.

Manfred Häner will remain responsible for the Group's 2015 accounts and financial reporting, and will then leave the company in March 2016. The CPH Group takes this opportunity to offer him its sincere thanks for all his energies and commitment, and wishes him every future satisfaction and success.

Mr. Häner's successor as CPH Group CFO will be communicated in due course.
