

Media release

Acquisition of LOG Pharma successfully concluded

The CPH Group has completed its acquisition of the LOG Pharma company with its production sites in Israel and Hungary. In doing so, the Group has taken a further step in its global expansion strategy in regions with high growth potential.

Perlen, 6 February 2025 – The acquisition of the LOG Pharma company by Perlen Packaging, the Packaging Division of the CPH Group, was concluded yesterday evening within the timeframe envisaged with the formal closing of the purchase transaction. LOG Pharma will be integrated into the Group's Packaging Division but will continue to trade under its present name.

In acquiring LOG Pharma and thereby establishing its own presence in Israel and Hungary, the CPH Group is further expanding its global market position in growth regions in the pharmaceutical packaging field. The acquisition also enables Perlen Packaging to add bottles and containers to its product range as complementary primary pharmaceutical packagings for medicinal products.

The acquisition of LOG Pharma marks the latest step in the CPH Group's pursuit of its global strategy of expanding its market position worldwide in regions with high growth potential. The Group is now active at 14 locations around the world.
